LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

Eugene Goodrich of the Lode, is here on a visit for awhile.

Mr. Powers of the Bullionville works spent Sunday in town.

The Summit mill is running steadily on ore from the Pacific tunnel.

Fruit from southern Utah has been plentiful in our market this week.

The regular State Fair will open at Reno on September 29, 1907.

Mrs. John Lynch and Miss Julia Lynch left Saturday by private conveyance for Delamar.

Klondyketts continue to be reported. Of the two latest one is in Ontario, the other in Mexico.

John Lynch and son Maurice were here Friday after supplies to be used on their mines at State Line.

P. Sheahan arrived last Friday evening from Delamar. He remained here until Tuesday attending to legal business.

Jas. N. Lanter of Cave Valley was in town for several days this week on business of general nature. He left Monday morning.

The school house has received a coat of fresh paint and other improvements have been made about the place. John Frank did the work.

The list of the bills allowed by the Board of County Commissioners at their meeting last Monday, appears on the first page of this issue.

Sheriff Freudenthal returned Sunday morning, from his trip to Reno, where he went with Combs and Bingham, two persons who were pronounced insane here several weeks ago.

Stewart McAnish was in from Wilson Creek the first of the week after supplies. Stewart says the hay crop in Lake Valley is larger this year than it has been for some time past.

Mrs. Jas. Duffin who has been visiting with her folks here for several weeks, left last Friday morning for Delamar. Her brother John Danohue went with her on a visit to the metropolis.

The next setting of the District Court will occur in October. The exact date has not been yet fixed, but ample nature of it will be given. The volume of business so far to come up is light.

Wm. Nye and W. L. Scott passed through here last Friday afternoon on their way to Ely, Eureka and other towns in the northern and western part of the State. They will be absent several months.

Allen G. Campbell is at Deerlodge arranging for work on some of his claims there. On one of the best a 100 foot shaft and 50 feet of drifting will immediately be done, and more if the development thus made, justifies.

Commissioner Giles and District Attorney McNamee came up from Delamar last Sunday evening to attend the Commissioner's meeting of last Monday. Giles returned Tuesday while Mc will remain here with his family.

The Delamar stage between Panaca and Delamar now runs via Oak Wells again. The wells are leased to parties other than the stage men and so the stage men now haul water for use between Panaca and Cliff and make one drive between those points.

B. C. McDonough and daughter Retta arrived from Delamar last Thursday and proceeded on to Salt Lake on Friday's stage. Ben will remain in the city a week or so and leave his daughter under the care of St. Mary's Academy.

Samuel J. Russel and Miss Alice Findlay were married at Ogden, Utah on Wednesday the 1st inst. The groom is a resident of Ogden and is studying for the bar, while the bride is well known hereabouts, having been born at Panaca. The couple have gone to Chicago where they may continue to reside in future.

COMMISSIONER'S PROCEEDINGS.

The Board of County Commissioners met last Monday all members being present. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved. Chas. Behr appeared before the Board and stated that one Benj. Padgett was in need of assistance and unable to wait on himself. After careful consideration the Board allowed Padgett the sum of twelve dollars per month.

The following bids were presented for the amount as re-advertised by the Commissioners of their last meeting: Henry Mathews, $69 at 60 cents; E. D. Turner, $722.75 at 60 cents; H. W. Turner, $66 at 55 cents; Eugene Goodrich, $133.50 at 60 cents; Jos. Eisenmann, $132.10 at 60 cents. As an injunction had been placed on the bids submitted, during the month, no action could be taken on the bids submitted, and the matter will probably be settled at the next term of the District Court.

Two bids, one from Dr. Mayo and one from Dr. Hammond of Delamar, to furnish professional attendance to the indigents of the county in Delamar were read and no action whatever taken on them. Mayo's bid was $300 a year and Hammond's bids $200 a year, which did not include medicine.

A bid for repairing the jail at Pioche was received from M. Church for the sum of $180, the contractor to furnish all material. The contract was awarded to Church.

Three bids for furnishing fifteen cords of cedar wood to be delivered at the courthouse, were read. They were as follows: Jos. Foster at $5 per cord, A. S. Thompson at $4.50 per cord and John Anderson at $4 per cord. John Anderson presenting the lowest bid, was given the contract.

The regular reports of the county officers were read and approved. The list of bills appears on our first page were allowed.

On application of three-fifths of the residents of Bullionville school district, praying that a new district be created out of the southern portion of said district, it was ordered that said petition be allowed and the new district to be known as Cottonwood district No. 13.

It was also ordered that $60 be given Jas. McBurney for fare and other expenses to the Soldier's Home in California.

No other business appearing the meeting was adjourned until the third Monday of September then to meet as a Board of Equalization.

PANACA POINTS.

N. J. Wadsworth is just completing his residence on Main street.

The wedding bells will soon ring at Bullionville. So says dame rumor.

Jim Higgins came in from Milford on Monday and as usual was "loaded with whisky."

The fall winds sighing through the tree tops makes the boys wonder where their summer's wages have gone.

The first frost of the season struck the vines on Monday night which makes them drop their heads. Look out for winter shortly.

I. N. Turnbough is expected to return shortly from Salt Lake where he has been securing a patent for a washing machine of his own invention.

J. G. Brown is having a fine dwelling house erected near his place of business, it will be a great improvement to that portion of town.

The finishing touches are being given to the titling office. We expect to have it entirely completed within a week, and ready to receive all offerings of the righteous.

Allen Nelson has just completed a road from here to Delamar, which shortens the route about twelve miles. Persons traveling that way will be well to follow his directions.

The little boys are getting impatient waiting for a wedding to happen in "Jo Town." They expected it would be a "Long" wedding but not quite so long as this.

One day last week a very dark cloud came from the south and remained for some length of time not being able to return. I am not able to say what the difficulty was unless it was paralysis, a thing that happens quite frequently of late especially on such occasions as a good minstrel coming to town.

Hamdens Minstrels was a grand success. Almost everyone enjoyed themselves exceedingly well only a few yaps who don't know the difference between a minstrel and a tragedy, of course such people are excusable.

Prof Leone's soprano solos were enjoyed by all who can tell good singing there are some people in our little villages I am sorry to say who don't know good singing from poor, we will pass them by and give them a chance to learn if it is possible.

LORE.

FROM DeLAMAR.

Our market is over-run with fruit of all varieties.

Payday was a quiet one this month and collections slow.

The Magnolia contractors will finish their work in a few days.

P. Sheahan went to the County Seat on legal business this week.

Another flood this week which makes three within the past month.

Dr. Snow will remain but a few days longer, and will visit Pioche on his return to Salt Lake.

Since our last issue Mrs. E. McGuffie has improved very much and will be able to get around soon.

John Roeder shipped a lot of material from Pioche this week which will be used on the store building.

The Palace Drug Store continues to receive shipments of fresh drugs and other goods carried by a first class house.

Alden Ferguson and interested parties are making preparations to develop some promising prospects on the Helene side.

The fuel economizer will be put in operation in a few days at the De. Lamar mill, and it is expected will save a large amount of wood.

Last Friday morning Chas. Swindler left here for Meadow Valley Wash to take charge of the school there for a term of six months.

During the week a number of wood teams were put to work filling up the wood yard at the DeLamar mill. The winter supply will be put in now.

Our school trustees have engaged Mrs. D. A. McDonald, Mrs. Kelly and Miss Annie O'Brien for the three departments of the next term of school.

It is rumored that parties in town are thinking strongly of starting a fast freight line but its no sure thing yet whether their plans will be carried out.

Work on the Fraction is progressing nicely under the direction of Gus Burth who is an experienced miner, and will find the yellow metal if it is there.

F. R. McNamee and Jas. Giles, District Attorney and Commissioner went to the County Seat Sunday to be present at the meeting of the Commissioners on Monday.

Last Saturday morning Mr. Lockwood, better known as "Yank" departed on the stage for the East where a fortune is awaiting him. He disposed of his burro train to Sam Robison.

Among the arrivals this week were M. O'Donnell and bride. Mike was absent but three weeks and surprised his many friends who join with the Record in wishing the newly married couple many happy years.

Last Monday night some thief broke into Clark Bros. store and got away with six or seven dollars in silver that was left in the cash drawer. Nothing else was touched and the party or parties got away.

Miss Kate Smith of this place and R. Tucker of White River, were married on the 2nd inst by Rev. Father Kennedy. The happy couple were serenaded by town hoodlums and afterwards by the boys of the town. The couple have our best wishes for a long and prosperous married life.

Judge Hoag transacted the following business this week: In the case of J. Nesbitt & Bro. vs. Mrs. E. Culverwell a jury was obtained after a two day search and after a careful consideration of the case the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the defendant. The case was over the possession of a stove which, according to the verdict, was given to the defendant, a bill of damages amounting to $5 and the plaintiff's paid the costs.

The second case was F. R. McNamee vs. G. Blewett. This was also a tried by a jury and they returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for the sum of $299.

In the case of John Purtscher against John Burrittton a decision in favor of the defendant was given for $74 and cost of suit.

Silver continues to drop.

Mr. Thomas representing Schilling's Tea Co., passed through here last Monday.

The first good rain of the season struck the town Thursday evening and it begins to feel like fall weather already.

W. S. Godie is here from Bullionville.

Travel and freight between Milford and DeLamar continues good.

Attorney Sanders passed through here on his way to Deerlodge yesterday.

Monday last was the closing day of the Saltair pavilion at Salt Lake for the Season of 1897. It has been operated since 1893 only and has never paid. The dull times have reduced late travel to less than half of what it was and only one resort will be operated at Salt Lake next Season, and possibly for several seasons to come. The Saltair pavilion is said to be 20 years ahead of the City's development and far too large for its needs. Garfield will be the only bathing resort on the lake next year.
